

National Year of
Reading
2012

You are invited to the launch of

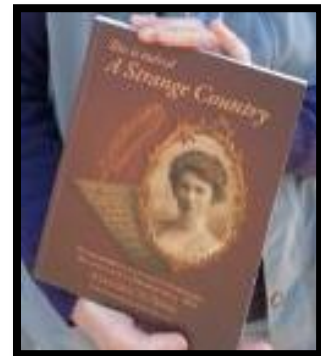

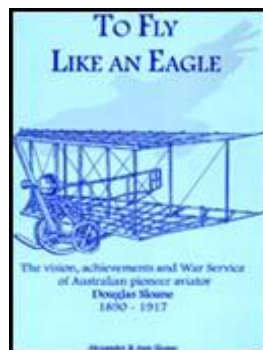

National Year of Reading 2012

'A slice of local history'

With guest authors

Ann and Alexander Sloane

Local authors Ann and Alexander will talk about their books: 'This Is Indeed a Strange Country', 'Heritage Farming in Australia' and 'To fly like an eagle'. The books based on family documents present an opportunity to visualise rural life of women in the 1890's, agricultural history and pioneer aviation with a particular local interest.

On Tuesday 14th February at 10.30am

At the new Corowa Library

100 Edward Street, Ball Park, Corowa

A light morning tea will follow

For enquiries or acknowledgement of interest for catering please contact the Corowa Library on 02 6033 8941